

Dear Commissioners of the FCC,
Please retain the remaining rules governing media ownership. Further concentration of ownership will have serious consequences for our culture and democracy, by stifling dissenting voices and further dumbing down the information available to consumers.

It is very important for our society that we protect the little remaining media diversity that exists now.

Furthermore, as an independent writer and creator of material for various media outlets, I am concerned that the reduction in competition that deregulating our mass media would cause will deprive me of the means by which I earn my living.

Yours truly,

Carla King

PS: I find it curious that the FCC requires that citizens address you in <CODE> in order for you to consider their opinion. It seems almost to be set up for input failure. Please recognize opinions that may have <BRACKETED INFORMATION> mistakes in them or drop your system.
